

I am fiercely opposed to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

The public airways are a sacred community resource, and Sinclair is abusing the public trust by using its license in such a clearly biased manner. The anti-Kerry piece is in no way legitimate "news" reporting, but clear partisan politics.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
